Personal Profile

I began programming during the COVID period and fell in love with it due to the endless supply of new concepts and tools to master. I have pursued a number of both creative and scientific pursuits in my life and have always found each to be lacking elements found in the other: In programming both inclinations are required in equal measure. I will continue learning tirelessly in any role and applying my creativity and analytical ability to the projects that I work on.

Technologies

Languages: Javascript, Java, Python

Front-End: React, React Native, HTML5, CSS3, TypeScript, Bootstrap, Tailwind

Back-End: Node.js, PostgreSQL, SQLite, Express

Testing: Jest, Husky

Experience

☐ Full-Stack Junior Developer, Northcoders Bootcamp: June - Sept. 2022

An intense 13-weeks that takes beginners and makes them employment-ready as developers. This was a way for me to quickly gain the practical experience to complement the theory in my Comp-Sci MSc.

Used a variety of complex precision instruments (Gas Chromatographs, High-Performance Liquid Chromatographs etc.) and testing procedures. Managed teams of various sizes to achieve targets in response to business requirements. Certified First-Aider, Gas-Cylinder Trained, key-holder.

Education

☐ MSc Computer Science (remote, part-time), University of Bath: Jan 2022 to present (finishes April 2024).

☐ BA Film Production, University of Salford, July 2019, 1st class hon.

Other

I have been an Oil-Painter for fifteen years and consider myself to be of a professional standard. I appeared on Sky Portrait Artist of the Year in 2021, where I painted broadcaster Gyles Brandreth. I have managed to expand my audience to over 12,000 people; notably including Nikki Sixx from the band Mötley Crüe, and Madonna.
